

Georgia Survey of 1000 Likely Voters Conducted May 5-6, 2014
 By the Saint Leo University Polling Institute
 General Election Margin of Error: +/- 3% with a 95% level of confidence (N=1000)
 Some percentages may add up to more or less than 100 due to rounding

LIKELY VOTER SCREENS:

To be included in the survey as a “likely voter,” all respondents had to affirm twice that they are 18 or older and say that in general elections they vote “all,” “most,” or “about half” the time. (N = 1000)

- Thinking about the November election for governor, if the election were held today would you vote for Republican Nathan Deal, Democrat Jason Carter, or Libertarian Andrew Hunt?
